Cowichan Board Meets Board invites you to a unique opportunity to learn about four community benefit organizations using social innovation to make a lasting impact in the community and are influencing economic development in the Cowichan region.

This event is for you if you are:

- A board director/executive director whose organization mobilizes action for positive community change
- An elected leader actively involved in positive community change
- A community builder seeking to enhance your knowledge of programs that advance quality of life in the Cowichan region
- A business leader working to increase the prosperity of the community

More information on the event will be coming out shortly. It will feature four local community agencies that are doing some remarkable work to tip the system for social change.

Space is limited to 40 seats.

Cowichan Board Meets Board is moving to a new registration system for events. It is easier and will mean the Organizing Committee can access the resources of Board Voice. Look for information from Board Voice.

The system is a Canadian company called Wild Apricot. We hope you will bear with us as we make the transition.

Regards,

Cowichan Board Meets Board Organizing Committee
